

Fabrizio Borraccia
Professional profile

Born on 15th November 1962 in Bari. Married with 2 children.

Degree in Political Science with a specialisation in International Politics at the “Università degli Studi” in Bari; Master in Corporate Communication and Journalism at the L.U.I.S.S. in Rome; he has been working in the world of entrepreneurial representation for over twenty years, first in the public and then in the private sector.

Since 1998, he has been working at UIR always dealing with external and international relations. At present, he is responsible for the international relations of the association. He has been a teacher in the field of institutional relations for important public institutes (SIOI) and private companies.